Residents of the village of Umm al-Khair in the Yatta Massafar region woke up this morning to the sound of heavy tools that settlers had brought to the outskirts of their homes. Near the village homes, the settlers began measuring and drilling into the land, claiming that it belonged to them. The settlers worked for hours and happily watched as the villagers were forced to watch their land being stolen without being able to do anything.

The settlers who participated in the work: Settler Issachar Man from the Masek Man outpost, and Settler Shimon Atiya from the Havat Shorashim outpost, along with the violent boy who accompanies him. Without shame, the following video was released today on the Facebook account of the Mount Hebron Council-

We remind you that the residents of the village of Umm al-Khair arrived in their current location after being expelled from their village in the Negev during the Nakba, and bought the land on which their village is located from the landowners who were residents of Yatta. The Jordanian occupation that ruled at the time recognized the purchase, but one day the Israeli occupation arrived in the West Bank and declared ownership of the village's lands.

In the 1980s, the residents of the village were expelled from most of its area, which became a military base and three years later the Carmel settlement. The residents of Umm al-Khair remained in the small part of the village that remained to them, and since then they have lived there under daily abuse and expulsion attempts by settlers, the army, police and the Israeli courts.

בשנת 1980 הקימו בסיס צבאי ליד אם אל ח'יר והצבא התחיל להתאמן ליד הכפר, אבל לא הרבה. ב1982 התחילו לבנות את כרמל. ב1983 הבתים היו מוכנים והתחילו להכניס תושבים. לאט לאט הם התחילו להתפתח ימינה ושמאלה, מערבה ומזרחה, עד שהגענו למצב בו ההתנחלות והגדר המקיפה אותה מגיעות עד בתי אם אל ח'יר.

1/4 Our friend and beloved Jibrin Abu Aram from the village of Gawawis was arrested today by the Hebron police and taken to one of the Israeli concentration camps ("detention center"). This is because he tried to protect his life and the lives of his family from a pogrom by dozens of settlers who attacked his home and village, injuring many residents, under the protection of the army and police, last Wednesday.

1/7 The Zionists told many lies about yesterday's attack. In the following thread and video - the true order of things. Yesterday morning, Palestinian landowners arrived to plow their lands in Wadi Suwayd, in coordination with the apartheid forces - which ended in a severe attack by the landowners and residents of the nearby village of Gawawis. Today, 3 years ago, the beloved Hajj Suleiman Al-Dha'aleen from the village of Umm Al-Khair was pronounced dead after being run over on the access road to his village by a police tractor. We translate the words of our friend and partner Tarek Al-Dha'aleen. "In memory of my uncle Hajj Suleiman - a beautiful soul taken too soon.

1/7 Last Monday, another hearing was held in the High Court of Justice following a contempt of court petition filed by residents of the village of Zanuta through the Hakel organization. This after the High Court accepted their petition last summer, which was filed following the expulsion of the village residents due to threats and settler violence. ynet.co.il/news/article/h...

2/7 Last summer, the High Court of Justice ruled that the police must secure the return of the village residents to the place from which they were expelled, and provide them with protection. However, as one might guess, the police did not implement the court's decision, and since then the residents of Zanuta have been expelled a second time.

3/7 In a hearing on Monday, the judges criticized the police for not preventing the violent incidents, after more than 100 more such incidents were reported since the petition was received. The police responded with ridiculous excuses for why they were not
