Occupation forces are currently invading the village of Kobar, near Ramallah, and carrying out mass detention campaigns targeting many men of the village as well as the liberated prisoner Hanan Barghouti.

They have occupied the home of liberated prisoner Nael Barghouti — who was the longest-held Palestinian prisoner before he was liberated and exiled to Egypt in the Toufan al-Ahrar prisoner exchange — and converted it to a "field interrogation center."

Among those who have been detained so far are:

Hanan Barghouti

Amer Muhannad

Sheikh Yasser Abu Musab

Asef Barghouti Abu Omar
Mohammed Faraj Zaibar
Anas Sarhan
Ahmed Abdullah
Ibrahim Al-Abd
Saleh Barghouti & his son Adam Barghouti
Lutfi Barghouti and his sons Yahya and Muhammad
Mujahed Wajdi
Sheikh Zahran Al-Fahl
Ibrahim Diaa
Qassem Barghouti
Youssef Sarhan
Saher Al-Barghouti and his sons, Moataz and Suhaib
Khalid Barghouti and his son Imad
