Nasser Massacre

Sayeret Golani, the same unit responsible for the killing of 16 aid workers in March, received intelligence from right-wing OSINT enthusiast named Rafael Hayun, who claimed there was a camera on 4th floor of the Hospital, acc. to main news outlet Channel 12 ->

Relying on this info, soldiers, led by Lt. Col. Bar Veakart, instructed a tank under the 36th Division to bomb the hospital twice. Killing more than 20, incl 4 Journalists

Military sources told Channel 12 and 14 that Hamas had been operating a camera there to monitor IDF troops

In reality, the camera seen in the photo was apparently used by Reuters and other media teams to broadcast live from Khan Younis.

They had previously aired live coverage from the very same spot, as shown below in 21 August. The camera has been in the area since last week.

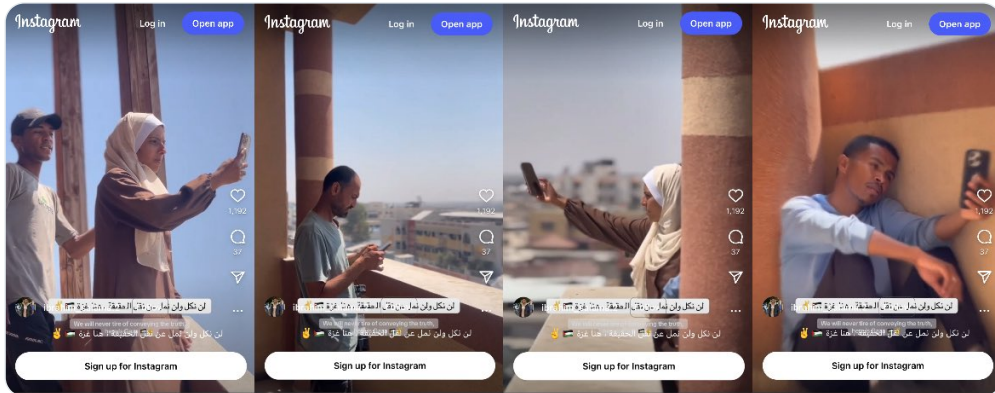

Here is Mariam, along with other journalists such as Mohammed Slamah—both of whom were killed—reporting from the same location.

This footage is from June:

Hayun claims to Almog Boker that the white sheet was used to camouflage the camera.

In reality, it was simply there to block the heat after all, you wouldn't try to hide a camera on a hospital roof with a white sheet that only makes it more visible.
